60 MINUTES

- 09/07/03 "North Of The Border"- According to Canadian intelligence, the country has become a haven for terrorists who have easy access to the U.S. Includes interviews with: David Harris, formerly with the Canadian Security Intelligence Service; Joe Bissett, a former executive director of the Canadian Immigration Service; Val Diaconescu, senior immigration inspector at Montreal's Dorval airport; and Professor Stephen Gallagher, Concordia University. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Trevor Nelson) (OAD: 04/28/02)
- "Any Given Sunday"- World Sports Exchange, an online gambling site, run by Jay Cohen and his partners Steve Schillinger and Haden Ware, moved to Antigua in order to circumvent U.S. laws prohibiting betting on sporting events. Two years ago, the federal government filed charges against the three partners under the Wire Communications Act which prohibits the use of telephone wires for gambling. On returning to the U.S. Jay Cohen was convicted of breaking the law and sentenced to prison. He is planning an appeal, claiming the law is outdated. (C: Morley Safer - P: Deirdre Naphin) (OAD: 01/07/01)
- "Anatomy Of a Mistake"- Dr. James Jagers, the Duke University surgeon whose team transplanted a heart and lungs with the wrong blood type into Jessica Santillan, deconstructs the mistake that led to her death. Also includes interviews with Ralph Snyderman, Chancellor for health affairs at Duke Hospital; and Dr. William Fulkerson, Duke Hospital CEO. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Michael Radutzky) (OAD: 03/16/03)
- Andy Rooney Topic: "The 10 Commandments" - editing the ten commandments
- 09/14/03 "Johnny Cash" - he beat drugs and alcohol but succumbed to diabetes this week. 60 MINUTES looks back on the life of the country music legend with an interview he once did with Harry Reasoner. (C: Harry Reasoner - P: Elliot Bernstein) (OAD: 11/14/82)
- "Change Of Heart?"- a report on the controversy arising over a 1976 Supreme Court ruling mandating that deliberate indifference to prison inmates' medical needs constitutes cruel and unusual punishment -- something prohibited by the Eighth Amendment. Under this ruling convicted criminals can consider almost every drug or medical procedure - even a heart transplant -- a Constitutional right. (C: Steve Kroft - P: L. Franklin Devine) (OAD: 12/01/02)
- "Sir David Attenborough"- an interview with the BBC's Sir David Attenborough who is in his 50th year of producing premier documentaries about nature. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Jeanne Solomon Langley) (OAD: 11/10/02) Andy Rooney Topic: "No Gifts Please"- things that are sent to Andy
- 09/21/03 "All In The Family"- a report on allegations of political influence as a factor in the awarding by the federal government of billions of dollars in contracts to rebuild Iraq. Includes interviews with: Robert Anderson, Chief Counsel, Army Corps of Engineers; Lt. Gen. Chuck Dominy, U.S. Army, Retired, Vice President, Halliburton; Bob Grace, GSM Consulting; and Charles Lewis, Center for Public Integrity. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Trevor Nelson) (OAD: 04/27/03)
- "Cooking With Gas" - Alaska not only has huge reserves of natural gas, but enough political clout to get taxpayers to subsidize the enormous costs of delivering it to the lower 48 states. Includes interviews with Alaska's Governor Frank Murkowski, who supports legislation authorizing a 3,000-mile natural gas pipeline with an estimated cost of between $17 billion to $20 billion; and Forrest Hoagland, Arctic Resources, whose proposal for a shorter, cheaper pipeline has been rejected. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Rome Hartman)
- "The Terrorist's Lawyer"- New York lawyer Lynne Stewart discusses the indictment Attorney General John Ashcroft brought against her for allegedly passing a message to followers of her client, convicted terrorist Sheik Omar Abdel Rahman. Stewart maintains that she was in no way part of a terrorist conspiracy but simply acted as her client's attorney. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Robert Anderson) (OAD: 05/05/02)
- Andy Rooney Topic: "The Bronx Zoo" - Andy visits the zoo (OAD: 04/27/97)

09/28/03 "Tulia, Texas" - Tom Coleman, a discredited undercover drug officer accused of targeting the black community of Tulia, Texas in a drug sting authorities now call a sham, defends his actions. The governor pardoned nearly all of the 46 Tulia residents, most of them black, who were sent to jail as drug dealers solely on the uncorroborated testimony of Coleman, who is now under indictment for perjury. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Michael Radutzky, Tanya Simon)
"Musically Speaking" - a report on an eight-year-old boy named Rex Lewis-Clack, whose incredible musical ability coexists with blindness and severe mental impairment. Includes interviews with 24-year-old Derek Paravincini, another musical savant and his teacher Adam Ockelford. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Shari Finkelstein)
"Eminent Domain" - investigates controversial eminent domain policies where the government is forcing private citizens to sell homes and businesses in cases that seem to benefit private rather than public interests. Includes interviews with: Jim Saleet, a Lakewood, Ohio man who is in danger of losing his home; Madeline Cain, Lakewood's Mayor; and Dana Berliner and Scott Bullock, attorneys for Jim Saleet. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Robert Anderson)
Andy Rooney Topic: Andy speaks his mind about the ten Democratic presidential candidates

09/17/03 "Apache Down" - Pts. I & II - the firsthand account of Chief Warrant Officers David Williams and Ronald Young, two American Apache helicopter pilots who were shot down in Iraq on March 24. They were subsequently captured, beaten and held hostage until April 17, when they were discovered and freed along with five other American POWs from the Army's 507th Maintenance Company (C: Dan Rather - P: Mary Mapes, Dana Roberson, Steve Glauber) (edited version of "Apache Down" OAD: 05/14/03)
"Swimming To Antarctica" - an interview with Lynne Cox, a 45-year-old American woman who is among the best ocean swimmers of our time. Cox traveled to Antarctica where she survived a mile-long swim in frigid water wearing only a swimsuit, cap and goggles. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Shawn Efran) (OAD: 02/12/03)

09/24/03 "Hunting Saddam" - a report about the search for Saddam Hussein, one of the biggest and most frustrating manhunts in history. The Pentagon contends that Saddam has been turned into a powerless fugitive, but concedes he has managed all efforts to capture or kill him. Includes interviews, in the Iraqi desert, with some of the officers of the Army's 4th Infantry Division; and with Secretary of Defense Donald Rumsfeld and Ahmed Chalabi, current president of the Iraqi Governing Council. (C: Dan Rather - P: Tom Anderson)

"Guantanamo" - a look inside Camp Delta, a secret, high-security prison at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba where the U.S. military is holding 660 suspected terrorists. Includes interviews with some of the camp personnel; as well as Captain James Yee, the Muslim chaplain who is now under arrest for espionage; Tom Wilner, attorney for the families of 12 Kuwaitis being held at Camp Delta; and Shah Mohammed, a Pakistani recently released from the camp. (C: Vicki Mabrey - P: Michael Rosenbaum, Michael Bronner)

"Ol' Blue Eyes Is Back" - a report on the discovery of lost films of singer Frank Sinatra in performance at the very height of his career, film shot decades ago that has been languishing in the Sinatra family vault for nearly 50 years. The film has been restored and enhanced for a new live show to open shortly in New York City's Radio City Music Hall. (C: Charlie Rose - P: John Hamlin, Alan Weisman, Warren Lustig)

"A Few Minutes With Steve Hartman" - everyone's looking to be tipped nowadays

48 HOURS

09/03/03 PREEMPTION

09/06/03 PREEMPTION

09/10/03 48 HOURS INVESTIGATES: "The Ghosts of Greenwich" - a report on recent developments in the investigation of the 1975 murder of Martha Moxley which supporters hope will lead to the exoneration of Michael Skakel. A witness has come to light with a story of two boyhood friends who apparently bragged about killing Moxley. Includes interviews with: Prof. Robert F. Kennedy Jr., Law, Pace University and Michael's cousin, and his brothers -- David, Stephen and John -- all of whom believe in Michael's innocence. Kennedy has written an article for The Atlantic Monthly, which outlines his reasons for claiming that Michael Skakel was wrongly convicted. Also includes interviews with: Len Levitt, New York Newsday; Dr. Michael Baden, forensics expert; Jonathan Benedict, prosecutor; Gene Riccio, attorney for Ken Littleton, also a suspect in the case; and Jeanine Pirro, former judge and now District Attorney in Westchester County, New York. Michael Skakel's attorney plans to file a motion for a new trial by the end of September. Skakel's murder sentence runs until 2022 with his first chance of parole at least 10 years away. Segments include: "A Bombshell"; "October 30, 1975"; "A Search For Truth"; "Burden Of Proof"; "Frozen In Time". (C: Lesley Stahl - Sr. P: Reid Collins Jr. - P: Anthony Batson, Mary Noonan Robichaux) (followup to "RFK, Jr.: A Family's Defense" OAD: 04/16/03))

- 09/13/03 48 HOURS INVESTIGATES: "Star Witness" - reports on two people imprisoned for murder who claim they were the victims of circumstance:
"Hope And Gloria" - Gloria Killian was studying to become a lawyer when she was arrested and tried for masterminding a robbery-homicide and, based on the testimony of a career criminal, sentenced to prison. Now, 16 years later, with the help of Joyce Ride, mother of astronaut Sally Ride, her conviction has been set aside. Killian has since started a non-profit organization dedicated to helping other women who may be victims of injustice. The Sacramento District Attorney's Office still reserves the right to retry Killian for the robbery and homicide, but so far has taken no new steps to do so. (C: Peter Van Sant - P: Marc Goldbaum, Abra Potkin Rabhan)
"A Child's Word" - Clarence Elkins, an Akron, Ohio man, who claims he is innocent, is in prison for the murder of his mother-in-law, 58-year-old Judith Johnson. With no physical evidence, Elkins' conviction was based on the testimony of his 6-year-old niece who was herself attacked by the assailant. Five years later, the child has recanted her original testimony. She now says that the killer was not her uncle Clarence but someone who resembled him. The Elkins family is going back to court in the hope of freeing Clarence and bringing the real killer to justice. (C: Susan Spencer - P: Clare Friedland) (Sr. P "Star Witness": Katie Boyle)
- 09/17/03 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Deadly Truth"- on June 4, 1983, Dr. Mary Howell's daughter Peggy and her husband Doug Ryen were brutally murdered along with their 10-year-old daughter Jessica and a friend, Christopher Hughes. Their eight-year old son Josh was seriously wounded but survived the attack. Kevin Cooper was arrested, subsequently tried and convicted of the murders. 86-year-old Dr. Howell, a practicing chiropractor, was not convinced that Cooper was guilty and feared that the real killers were still at large. Shortly after 48 HOURS initial broadcast, the state of California agreed to do DNA testing on evidence found at the murder scene. The result points to one perpetrator - Kevin Cooper. Includes an interview with Josh Ryen, now 29, about the night his family was murdered and his belief that Cooper did not act alone. Cooper still maintains that he is innocent. Segments include: "a Grandmother's Pain"; "Anywhere But Here"; "Josh's Story"; "The Whole Truth?"; "Clues"; "Survivor" (C: Erin Moriarty - Sr. P: Reid Collins Jr. - P: Joe Halderman, Samuel Fine) (followup to "a Grandmother's Mission" OAD: 10/26/00)
- 09/20/03 48 HOURS INVESTIGATES: "Cry Rape" - reports on two rape cases:
"Truth Be Told" - on October 14th 1983, an intruder entered 18-year-old Laura Neuman's Baltimore apartment through a window and raped her in her own bed. She had a difficult time convincing police, and even her own family, that a stranger committed the crime. Nineteen years after the attack Baltimore Police started a new cold case unit investigating unsolved rape cases. Laura Neuman's case was reopened in April 2002. Based on fingerprints at the scene of the crime, police identified Alphonso Hill as the assailant. Hill confessed to the crime, was tried and sentenced to prison. (C: Susan Spencer - P: Ian P. Paisley)
"Mystery Man" - "Karen," who prefers to remain anonymous, claimed that she was assaulted three times by the same man, a stranger. The Oregon City and Tualatin, Oregon, police departments were baffled because of the lack of clues and witnesses. Gregg McCrary, a former FBI profiler, was asked by 48 HOURS to come to Oregon, to assist investigators there. (C: Erin Moriarty - P: Clare Friedland)
"Manhunter" - Interviews with Gregg McCrary and with Arthur Shawcross, a serial killer who terrorized Rochester in 1989. Shawcross was tracked down by McCrary and is serving a 250-year prison sentence. (C: Erin Moriarty - P: Deborah Grau)
"Exposed" - with Gregg McCrary's assistance, local investigators check crime lab findings of evidence at the three so-called crime scenes. They conclude that no crime has taken place. (C: Erin Moriarty - P: Clare Friedland) (Sr.P. "Cry Rape": Al Briganti)

09/27/03 48 HOURS INVESTIGATES: "Tacoma Confidential" - a report on corruption and a cover-up by city officials of Tacoma, Washington, focusing on David Brame, the city's police chief who rose to power despite a shady past. In February 2003, after 11 years of marriage, Brame's wife Crystal filed for a divorce. In April, John Hathaway, a man with an internet site called The New Takhoman, anonymously received the Brame divorce papers, which contained details about the couple's marriage, including allegations of sexual demands, abuse and death threats. Hathaway published the information, titled "Tacoma Confidential," on his website. The story then made the headlines in local papers. The following day, David shot Crystal in the head and turned the gun on himself. He died almost immediately, while Crystal lingered for a week. There are three separate investigations into the Brame murder-suicide, including an FBI inquiry to determine whether any one should face criminal charges. Crystal's parents are preparing to file a multimillion-dollar lawsuit against the city of Tacoma. Segments include: "Out Of The Blue"; "Breaking Away"; "Chief Allegations"; "Cover-up"; "Starting Over" (C: Bill Lagattuta - Sr. P: Katie Boyle - P: Paul LaRosa)
